EARLY EDUCATION MATTERS

Unlike any other online preschool learning program available to libraries, Gale Presents: Miss Humblebee's Academy offers a fun, inviting, and safe environment, with thousands of online and offline activities to prepare children ages three to six for kindergarten proficiency. In fact, the offline curriculum accounts for 40 percent of the material, offering lessons, extension activities, printables, and practice worksheets to balance and minimize screen time.

Your library can help parents and caregivers meet the needs of their early learners, further empowering them in their journey toward school readiness by delivering an educational program that introduces children to key concepts in math, science, social studies, language and literacy, art, and music, plus social and emotional learning (SEL).

GIVE PRESCHOOLERS A STRONG FOUNDATION

MULTIPLE PATHS TO LEARNING
Parents can choose from three learning plans, based on their child's needs: Guided Learning, My Learning, and Choose a Lesson.

EARLY SOFT-SKILL DEVELOPMENT
More than 100 SEL activities and lessons help children regulate their emotions, develop self-confidence, and more. Includes digital animations, real-life video modeling, songs, and eBooks.

ON-DEMAND TEACHER INSTRUCTION
Teacher-led video tutorials cover key skills and concepts in all subject areas, including video versions of the offline science, technology, engineering, the arts, and mathematics (STEAM) activities.

SUPPORT FOR DIVERSE LEARNERS
Spanish content, including printables, eBooks, and teacher-led videos with Spanish subtitles, provides a multilanguage learning experience.

INTERACTIVE OPPORTUNITIES
Along with a read-aloud option, eBooks include prediction and comprehension questions, and have an offline printable template to retell the story with words or pictures.

MEASURED SUCCESS
Libraries receive three monthly reports that give insight into early literacy development in their communities. Parents get weekly email notifications to view progress and performance reports, which identify strengths, pinpoint trouble spots, and show improvement.
